
TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Authors	7
I. Introduction	9
1. Introduction J. De Groof	11
2. Education as a Basic Right in Present-Day Society A Synthetic Approach J. De Groof	15
II. Analysis and Remarks	29
3. Analysis of the 'Legislation on Education of the Russian Federation' J. De Groof	31
4. Constitutional Aspects of the Law on Education of the Russian Federation G. van den Berg	61
5. Russian Educational Policy as Part of the Political Effort At Reform K. Malfliet	71
6. The New Russian Education Law: an Appreciation and some Precautions J.E. Coons	87
7. Organizing the Russian Educational System for Freedom and Accountability C.L. Glenn	95
8. Remarks on the Act of Russian Federation "on Education" A. Vavilov	105

9. The Legislative Regulation of Relations of Municipal School and its Founder in Russian Federation A. Vavilov	109
10. Qualitative Training of Graduates of Institutes The result of high qualification pedagogical workers Z.P. Daschinskaja	113
III. Text and Comments – Article by Article	115
11. Law on Education of the Russian Federation	117
IV. Education in Russia and Multilateral Cooperation	163
12. Educational Co-operation in the New Europe: The Council of Europe's Response M. Stobart	165
13. The OECD Response T. Whitman	171
14. The Tempus Programme of the Commission of the European Communities for the Newly Independent States F.P. Küpper	175
V. Conclusions	177
15. 'L'Etat de Droit' and Education in Russia T. de Grüben	179
16. Conclusions E.V. Tkachenko	187
17. Education and the Flemish-Russian Cooperation L. Van den Bossche	203
VI. Annex	207
18. Constitution (Fundamental Law) of the Russian Federation – Russia [as amended on 10 December 1992]	209