
CONTENTS

Table of Contents	5
Preface – Editors	7
List of Contributors	8
Commendation by Mr. Prof. Dr. Jan de Groof	12
Introduction – Jan de Groof, Jan Heystek, Rassie Malherbe and Joan Squelch	14
Keynote Address – Luki Nkonka	25
1. Recent Developments in Public School Governance in Canada – Bill Foster	28
2. The Implications of the SA Schools Act for Education Governance – Eberhard Bertelsmann	64
3. The Important Role of School Governing Bodies in a Time of Transformation – Theo Möller	72
4. School Governance Capacity Building for Transformation – Alex Mashile	78
5. Norms and Standards for School Funding – Johan Conradie	84
6. The Involvement of Learners in Public Secondary School Governance: Is it Working? – Jan Heystek	93
7. Keeping the School out of Court by Ensuring Legally Defensible Discipline – Johan van Staden and Ken Alston	110
8. Administrative Justice: The Implications for School Governors – Joan Squelch	118
9. Transforming Educational Institutions in terms of Labour Relations Legislation – Justus Prinsloo	129
10. Policy Implementation: The Rise of Trade Unionism in Education – Simeon Maile	147
11. Professional Control over Teacher Misconduct – Ivor Sutherland	161
12. The Road to Independence in the Further Education and Training Sector – Connie Haasbroek	168
13. The Concept of Educational Autonomy – Charles L. Glenn	176
14. Deregulation Versus Regulation : A European Perspective – Roger Standaert	184
15. Conflict and Change Management in Universities – Ezekiel Moraka	190
16. Gaining Independence : “Autonomy” versus “Centralization” in the Higher Education of the Flemish Community ? – Jan De Groof	198
17. The Charter of Rights and Educational Governance : Much Ado About Nothing ? – Greg M. Dickinson	225