
CONTENTS

Contents	5
Preface – Editors	7
List of contributors	8
Address by Jackie Selebe – Director-General of Foreign Affairs	11
Introduction – Jan de Groof, Willy Legotlo, Rassie Malherbe and Johan Potgieter	15
Chapters
1. The Role of Education in South African Societal Change: An Ecological Prospective – Brain K Perkins	25
2. Constitutionalism, Multiculturalism and Education – Johan le Roux and Johan Beckmann	39
3. The Acknowledged Purposes of Education: An African Lawyer’s Nightmare – M Majeke	55
4. The Learner’s Perception of a Human Rights Culture – Jabulani Sithole	85
5. The Right to Attend School in New Zealand: School Choice, Enrolments and Suspensions and Potential Impacts of the 1997 Education Legislation Amendment Bill – Ken Rae	97
6. Human Rights Education and Emancipation: Implementation in European Educational Curricula – Ludo Veny and Sigrid Pauwels	117
7. Human Rights Materials Development for Curriculum 2005: A Practical Model – David Taylor	127
8. The Bumpy Road of Implementing a Human Rights Culture in Multi-cultural Schools in South Africa – Anita van der Bank, Rika Joubert and Isak Prinsloo	151
9. Educational Rights of Minority Groups: Implications for the Provision of Education for Minority Groups – Hennie Steyn	165
10. Fulfilling the Right to Education: Managing Available Resources – Justus Prinsloo	185
11. Collective Bargaining in the Education Sector: Legal Dilemma’s – Willy Legotlo	197
12. Freedom of Expression in Education – Neville Wood	207
13. The Impact of the Constitution on Higher Education in South Africa – Rassie Malherbe	241