

The Right to Education and Rights in Education

Jan De Groof

Gracienne Lauwers

Table of Contents

Preface	1
About the European Association for Education Law and Policy	3

I. INTRODUCTION

'LET US NOT BE AFRAID. LET US BE AMBITIOUS'

Jan De Groof	9
---------------------	---

UNESCO AND THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION

Mohammed Bedjaoui	15
1. The right to education and international legal obligations	15
2. Relationship between the right to education and the right to development	16
3. Major challenges confronting the international community	16
3.1 Universalising access to education and removing disparities	16
3.2 Ensuring equality of educational opportunities	17
3.3 Ensuring access of the poor to education, in particular to primary education as of right	17
3.4 Eradication of illiteracy and inclusive education	18
3.5 Mobilising resources for education	18
3.6 Challenges and problems in the Arab world	18
4. Concluding observations	20

CREATING THE EUROPE OF KNOWLEDGE

Ján Figel	21
------------------	----

EDUCATIONAL POLICY IN AMSTERDAM

Job Cohen	25
------------------	----

ACCESS AND EQUITY IN SOUTH AFRICAN EDUCATION

Naledi Pandor	29
1. Introduction	29
2. The legacy of apartheid	29
3. Democratic government initiatives	30
4. School fees	32
5. Teachers	34
6. Racial integration in schools	35
7. Curriculum	35
8. Conclusion	35

II. THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION

UNIVERSAL ACCESS TO EDUCATION AND EQUALITY OF EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Kishore Singh	39
1. Introduction	39
2. Universal access to education and equality of educational opportunities: normative framework	39
2.1 UNESCO's normative action	40
2.2 Education for All (EFA) as a priority	44
2.3 Normative framework of the United Nations	46
3. Implementation measures	48
3.1 UNESCO's experience and approach	49
3.2 Core responsibility of governments	50
3.3 Collaboration with the United Nations system	51
4. International legal obligations and national legal system	53
5. Major challenges	54

SEGREGATION IN EDUCATION AND THE ONUS OF PROOF ACCORDING TO THE EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Gracienne Lauwers	57
1. Facts	57
2. The Law	58
3. Onus of proof	58
4. Analytical approach of the ECtHR in discrimination cases	61
5. Conclusion	67

STATE GUARANTEES AND THE LIMITATIONS OF EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS OF CITIZENS IN RUSSIA

Veronika Spasskaya	69
1. Language of instruction	73
2. Free higher education	79
3. Positive discrimination	80
4. Paid education	81
5. Conclusion	83

CONCEPTS OF EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT IN LATVIA

Mareks Gruskevics	85
1. Introduction	85
2. Priorities for the implementation of the Concepts of Education Development and the funding required	85
3. The Concepts of Education Development sets up the goals of the development of the education system for 2002-2005 and the direction of actions to achieve them	86
4. Goals of the Concepts of Education Development and directions of action	86
4.1 General education	88
4.2 Vocational education	88

4.3 Higher education	89
5. Conclusion	89

EDUCATION AS A HUMAN RIGHT: THE RWANDAN EXPERIENCE FROM 1994-2004

Romain Murenzi, John Rutayisire & Claver Yisa	91
1. Introduction	91
1.1 Background to the education system before 1994	91
1.2 Setting education priorities after 1994	92
1.3 Legal framework	93
2. Education as a human right: policy and practice (1994 to 2004)	93
2.1 Education as a human right for peace building and national reconstruction in Rwanda: the way forward	97
2.2 Institutionalisation of education as a human right in Rwanda	98
2.3 Integrated approach	99
3. Conclusion	100

EDUCATION IN A GLOBALISING WORLD

H.W.O. Okoth-Ogendo	101
1. The scope of assessment	101
2. Education in a globalizing world	101
3. The legal challenges	102
4. Concluding remarks	103

EDUCATION AS A HUMAN RIGHT: CONCEPTUAL CHALLENGES AND PRACTICAL CONCERNS: A SOUTH AFRICAN EXPERIENCE

Andre Keet	105
1. Education in an age of rights (and markets)	105
2. Education-as-a-human-right/Education-as-a-public-good	106
3. The South African experience	108

THE RIGHT TO BASIC EDUCATION FOR LEARNERS IN FARM SCHOOLS IN SOUTH AFRICA: NOBLE CAUSES OR WORTHY CITIZENS?

Samiera Zafar	113
1. Introduction	113
2. Experiences of basic education by learners at farm schools	114
3. Review of the policy and legislative framework on the right to basic education	115
4. Visions for basic education within the South African Constitution and the international human rights framework	116
5. Crossing the boundaries and working at the limits of the policy framework	118
6. Concluding remarks	119

III. RELIGIOUS RIGHTS IN EDUCATION

THE IDEA OF A CONFESSIONAL SCHOOL

Godfried Cardinal Danneels	125
-----------------------------------	-----

RELIGIOUS RIGHTS IN EDUCATION: THE CANADIAN PERSPECTIVE

Beverley McLachlin	129
1. The school as a public space: religious faith in the public sphere	132
2. The role of the State in the validation of religious beliefs	135

RELIGION IN EDUCATION: A GERMAN POINT OF VIEW

Kurt Graulich	139
1. A necessary glance on history	139
1.1 Religious rules in Europe	139
1.2 Enlightenment (Aufklärung) and secularization in Europe and the USA	139
2. Description of the legal position in Germany	140
2.1 Constitutions of the Federation and Lands of the Federation	140
2.2 Rights of religious communities	141
2.3 Individual religious rights	142
2.4 Individual educational rights	142
2.5 Institutional rights of the state	143
3. Matters of dispute in Germany	144
3.1 Christian morning prayer	144
3.2 Crucifixes in classrooms	144
3.3 Non-Christian instruction lessons on state schools	145
3.4 Moslem headscarf	145
4. Assessment	146
4.1 Is there an accepted distinction between state and religion	146
4.2 Is there an accepted distinction between politics and religion	147
4.3 Could the principles of universal ethics help	147
5. There is a way out	149

NO PERSON SHALL BE DENIED THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION IN FREEDOM

Jan De Groof	151
1. Introduction	151
2. Pluralism in the educational system; pluralism at State schools	152
3. Freedom of education	153
3.1 Relevancy of the non-governmental sector	153
3.2 The right to be different	155
3.3 Some dilemmas of non-State schools	156
4. The philosophical ethos of the State school is under debate	160
4.1 The tight rope: pluralism and democracy – pluralism fosters the articulation of identity and of opinion	160

4.2	Children's rights	162
4.3	Religious rights and core state obligations on positive pluralism	164
4.4	The margin of appreciation versus indifferentism?	165
5.	In conclusion	167
6.	Dankwoord	167
7.	Bibliography	170

RELIGION AS COMPULSORY SUBJECT IN STATE SCHOOLS: COMPARATIVE TRENDS, INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN COMMITMENTS

José Luis Martínez López-Muñiz		177
1.	Guidelines from the Council of Europe Ten Years Ago	177
2.	One's own religion as a compulsory subject in state schools	178
2.1	In the different States' legislation	178
2.2	In International Conventions	181
2.3	In European Conventions	184
3.	Religion or religions as a general compulsory subject: a new approach	187
4.	Conclusion	192

THE FREEDOM OF EDUCATION: A RIGHT OF ALL ITALY IN COMPARISON WITH EUROPE

Guglielmo Malizia		195
1.	Freedom of education, a right of all	195
1.1	A fundamental human right	195
1.2	The model of lifelong learning	197
2.	The orientations in the EU	198
2.1	A new role of the State	198
2.2	Autonomy and freedom of education	199
2.3	Methods of funding non-state schools	200
2.4	A school for everybody	201
3.	The Italian situation	203
3.1	The recent history of the non-state school in Italy	203
3.2	The law of March 10th 2000, No.62 on equivalent treatment	205
3.3	The realization of the new public system of education	207

L'ENSEIGNEMENT DE LA RELIGION ET LA PRATIQUE DE LA RELIGION DANS LES ÉCOLES PUBLIQUES EN BELGIQUE

Francis Delpérée et Thomas Bombois		213
1.	Le droit de choisir un établissement conforme aux convictions de l'élève	214
1.1	Le droit de créer un établissement d'enseignement de type confessionnel ou non confessionnel	215
1.2	Le droit de fréquenter un établissement de type confessionnel ou non confessionnel	227
2.	Le droit à un enseignement conforme a des convictions religieuses ou philosophiques dans l'enseignement public	231
2.1	Une offre d'enseignement obligatoire	231

2.2	Un choix de cours facultatif?	235
3.	Le droit de pratiquer sa religion dans l'enseignement public	236
3.1	Les droits de l'enseignant	237
3.2	Les droits de l'élève	238
4.	Conclusion	241

THE RIGHT TO FREEDOM OF RELIGION IN SOUTH AFRICAN SCHOOLS

Rassie Malherbe	243
1. Introduction	243
2. The right to religious freedom	245
3. The unconstitutionality of the policy	249
3.1 Religion education	249
3.2 Religious observances	251
3.3 The rights of independent schools	254
3.4 Powers of governing bodies	255
4. Conclusion	256

IV. THE COST OF EDUCATION

WHY ISN'T EDUCATION FREE?

Katarina Tomaševski	261
1. The principle of equality versus the reality of exclusion and inequalities	265
2. Uniformity versus diversity in designing education	266
3. Two facets of education: right and duty	269
4. Education as a public good versus commercial worth of education	271
5. In-school versus out-of-school learning	272

WHAT DOES SCHOOL AUTONOMY MEAN IN PRACTICE?

Charles L. Glenn	277
1.. Introduction	277
2.. Autonomy with respect to selection of school staff	278
3.. Autonomy with respect to curriculum	280
4.. Accountability for school quality	282
5.. Final observations	284

FISCAL ADEQUACY, QUALITY EDUCATION IN AMERICA AND GLOBALIZATION

Frank Brown	287
1. The North Carolina adequacy case	290
2. Federal government	294
3. Globalization and education	295
4. Adequacy: conclusions	295
5. Summary	297

THE FUNCTIONS OF PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT IN EDUCATION

Angelo Paletta	301
1. The aims of evaluating the education sector	301
2. Aligning accountability and the managerial development of schools	302
3. School performance measurement and management	306
4. Mission and performance	312
5. The 'human capital idea' is the focal point of the school's mission	313
6. The creation of human capital as a combination of skills	314
7. Human capital: objective and tool for schools	316
8. The problem of measuring the human capital produced by schools	317

V. SAFETY IN EDUCATION

SAFETY IN EDUCATION: THE RWANDAN CASE

Romain Murenzi, Claver Yisa, Charles Gahima	325
1. Background and context	325
1.1 Country context	325
1.2 Safety related challenges to education as a result of the 1994 war and genocide in Rwanda	325
2. Safety in education	326
2.1 Defining safety in education	326
3. Safety in education seen from a wider context	326
3.1 Physical safety in education	326
3.2 Psychological safety in education	327
4. Safety in education, the Rwandan case	328
4.1 Infrastructure	328
4.2 Some safety threats in education	330
4.3 Proximity to schools as a safety threat in education	331
4.4 Drugs and alcohol abuse as a safety threat in education	331
4.5 Terrorism and guns as a safety threat in education	331
5. The 1994 genocide legacy as a safety threat in education	331
6. Poorly trained teachers as a safety threat to education	332
7. Conclusion and recommended actions to safety in education	332

DELICTUAL LIABILITY OF THE STATE FOR SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN SOUTH AFRICAN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Johan Potgieter	335
1. Introduction	335
2. Sexual harassment and delictual liability	335
3. Delictual liability of the state and section 60(1) of the South African Schools Act 84 of 1996	336
4. Delictual liability for sexual harassment	338
5. Vicarious liability	342
6. Conclusion	346

PHYSICAL, EMOTIONAL AND CULTURAL SAFETY IN NEW ZEALAND SCHOOLS

Sally Varnham	349
1. New Zealand State schools: their responsibility to maintain a safe educational environment	350
1.1 'Safe Students in Safe Schools': Report of the Education Review Office, Te Tari Arotake Matauranga	353
2. Particular legislation in New Zealand which affects a school's legal responsibility for failing to ensure a safe environment	355
2.1 The Injury Prevention, Rehabilitation, and Compensation Act 2001 (NZ) damages in light of the Accident Compensation Regime	355
2.2 The Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992 (NZ) – the potential for criminal liability of school authorities	358
2.3 The New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 and the Human Rights Act 1993	359
2.4 The Education Standards Act 2001 (NZ) – teacher conduct which threatens student safety	360
3. Cultural safety: The Treaty of Waitangi (Te Tiriti o Waitangi) and education	361
4. Conclusion	364

LEGAL BASES OF THE CONCEPT OF EDUCATIONAL SAFETY IN RUSSIA

Anatoly Kapustin	365
1. Theoretical bases of the concept of educational safety in Russia	365
2. The contents of the concept of educational safety in the Russian Federation	366
3. International legal and constitutional bases of school safety	367
4. Legislative bases of the concept of school safety in the Russian Federation	368
5. The basic problems of realization of a policy of school safety in modern Russia	368

VI. PIET AKKERMANS LECTURES 2004 – 2005

RELIGION, EDUCATION AND THE STATE

Maria J.A. van der Hoeven	373
----------------------------------	-----

RELIGION, EDUCATION AND THE STATE

J.S. Verma	377
1. Introduction	377
2. Comparative constitutional values	378
3. Education and religion	379
4. State responsibility	381
4.1 International standards	381
4.2 Indian perspective	382

4.3 General	384
5. Conclusion	385

THE DEVELOPMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

Vladyka Dimitrij	387
-------------------------	-----

THE BASIS OF A COMMON PEDAGOGICAL SPACE

Mgr. A.H. van Luyn	395
1. Virtues as the bridge between values and standards	395
2. The basis of a 'Common Pedagogical Space'	398
3. The bearing surface of a 'Common Pedagogical Space'	400
4. In conclusion	402

IN CONCLUSION

Gracienne Lauwers	403
--------------------------	-----

DECLARATION OF AMSTERDAM

25 – 30 November 2004, Amsterdam, The Netherlands	405
---	-----

JAKARTA DECLARATION

2 – 4 December 2005, Jakarta, Indonesia	415
---	-----

Biographies	419
-------------	-----